NO. 16

A GOOD WOMAN DIES.

On Saturday last, in Stamping ground, Kentucky, one of the best wonmen it has ever been our good fortune to know, entered into eternal rest.

Mrs. Julia Adams Black, wife of Dr. E. H. Black, was about 75 years of age. She was taken with a severe attack of ague about ten days before, which settled on her heart, and at 12 m. on Saturday she went home to the mansion prepared—"beyond the shadow and the shining."

Mrs. Black was one of the gentlest, tenderest and most lovable women Kentucky ever produced. In prosperity and in adversity she was ever the same cheerful and hopeful Christian. When prosperous, she was ever mindful of the sorrowing and the distressed. When adversity came, she recognized the dealings of a Father's wisdom and was ever ready to say "My Father knows what is best."

With unabated fidelity and love she ministered to the necessities of her aged and invalid husband until pain and illness laid her low and even then her chief anxiety was for his comfort and happiness.

In early girlhood she united with the Baptist Church and all along the journey of life she manifested the power of Divine grace to govern and control her every action.

When the last hour came she was not afraid and calmly and quietly laid her weary head upon her Savior's breast in that sleep that knows no earthly waking.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. Warn Beagle, her pastor, from the Stamping Ground Church, on Monday morning at 1 o'clock, and the loved dust was laid away in the cemetery at that place.

She leaves an aged husband, two daughters (Mrs. J. A. Hodges of Louisville, and Mrs. Helen McClure, of this city), one son Lieut. Jos. A. Black, of Carrollton, Mo., and two step-children (Hon. J. C. C. Black, ex-Sen. Muriel H. Schreiber, of Missouri) who were perfectly devoted to those—and a host of friends to mourn her death. We tender our sincere condolence to those so sorely tried by this sad event.

CHRISTMAS AT MASONIC TEMPLE.

In accordance with the usual custom among Templar Masons the Sir Knights of Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, met at their asylum in Masonic Temple at 11 o'clock Christmas morning and partook of some light refreshments. Sir Knight Geo. A. Lewis, Grand Captain General, presided as toastmaster, and the following toasts were drunk:

To our Most Eminent Grand Master, Reuben Hedley Lloyd—A merry Christmas, and may the coming century fulfill the golden promise of Peace on Earth and Good Will to Men.

To which the Grand Master sent the following response:

Templars—I wish you a happy and prosperous new year. When all keep the new commandment of our Redeemer, the golden promise will be fulfilled. You are obligated unreservedly to bring to pass that peace of man's mind and the intellectual development. In the Gospel of St. John, xii chapter, 34th verse you will find the new commandment.

The Grand Commandery of Kentucky.

To which Grand Generalissimo Frank H. Johnson responded in appropriate language.

The health of Sir Knight John D. Utterback, of De Molay Commandery, No. 18, who had been very ill at the Capital Hotel for several weeks, was also drunk, with the earnest wish for his speedy restoration to health, and a floral offering ordered sent to him with the compliments of the season and words of Knightly sympathy.

A handsome pipe and an abundance of smoking tobacco was then presented to Sir Knight Gus Schaefer, the faithful Captain of the Guard of the Commandery, by a number of those present, and the company broke up after an enjoyable hour together.

LAST TRIBUTE.

The last tribute of respect was paid to the memory of Col. Tom Rodman, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the First Baptist Church was packed to the doors with mourning friends, many persons standing in the aisles.

Rev. M. B. Adams, the pastor of the church, with emotion hard to control, paid a tender and just tribute to the sterling integrity and unwavering fidelity of the good man gone.

The large choir of the church sang two of the favorite hymns of their dead brother, "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul," in softly minor keys; and, amid the tears and audible sobs of many in the audience, the loved dust was borne to the cemetery and laid beside his wife and son in the family lot in our cemetery.

"And good men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him."

An unusual feature was the large attendance of the most highly respected colored people of our city, to whom Col. Rodman had always been a kind and considerate friend.

All that could be has been done to give testimony to the high regard in which our loved friend was held.

Farewell! Thank God we shall strike hands once more on the other shore.

Elsewhere we give resolutions adopted by the Directors of the Farmers Bank and of the First Baptist Church testifying to their great loss.

COL. E. C. HATHAWAY'S ENTERPRISE.

Frankfort Roundabout:

Gentlemen—Believing it will be of interest to the trade at large, the Lexington Railway Co. takes pleasure in notifying you that they have closed a contract with the Frick Company, of Waynesboro, Pa., for a 30 ton ice plant of their latest and most approved patterns. Thus increasing the capacity of the old Lexington Ice Manufacturing & Storage plant, now called plant No. 2, by this amount daily.

Contracts have also been let for an ice storage building with a capacity of 1,000 tons to be situated at plant No. 2 and facing a switch on the L. & N. Railway. This will give a total ice storage capacity of 2,500 tons of ice which will be stored on the belt line and the balance on the L. & N. Thus giving unexampled facilities for prompt shipment at any time and in any direction.

With the building of this new plant comes a thorough overhauling of the old Hercules plant which will bring the total output to over 100 tons daily in the warmest weather.

In the future, as in the past, our Mr. Hunt, of the ice department, will pay special attention to the wholesale business. All shipments being made promptly and packed and stored in the most approved manner.

The company have installed their own car service of refrigerator cars for the shipment of ice and at such times that their own cars are not available arrangements have been made for refrigerators with the C. & O. and the L. & N. Railways to take the place of them.

Correspondents from dealers and manufacturers who wish to supplement their own supply is earnestly solicited, also from parties who can not use car lots.

Prompt attention will be given to express orders.

Yours very truly,
LEXINGTON RAILWAY CO.

THANKS.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to Miss Caroline Brock, of the Forks of Elkhorn, for a present of a basket of delightful fruits. Our fair friend will accept our gratitude for her kindly remembrance. The fruit sent was as delightful to the taste as she is sweet and attractive to the eye.

A GREAT SHOCK.

The many friends of popular, big hearted Benjamin Lewis Bryant, Traveling Passenger Agent of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis railroad, were shocked to hear of his death, which sad event occurred at his home in Louisville at 6:45 p.m., on Sunday, after an illness of only ten days from that terrible disease, typhoid fever, aged 40 years.

Only a few weeks since he was a visitor in our city and made his usual genial call upon us. Now he is gone.

We have known him long and well. He was a prince among men. His heart and hand were ever open to his legion of warmly attached friends.

He leaves a wife and three small children, one brother and two sisters to mourn his untimely death. The remains were taken to Versailles, his old home, on Monday, for interment.

The most effective little liver pills made are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They never gripe. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

ARTHUR RANDOLPH SEATON.

This famous English baritone needs little introduction to the American public in addition to the extracts herewith. He is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Milan, and a pupil of Leon. His first engagement was with the Carl Rosa Grand Opera Company, London, England, where he was the principal baritone.

His brilliant career with this organization brought him into prominence with the American managers, and he was soon captured for the Tavay Grand Opera Company, after which he was engaged at the Grand Opera House, New York, and is now under contract with the International Grand Operatic Company. He also received special honors through engagements among New York's "Four Hundred."

During the past season he was a particular favorite everywhere. The eulogies and press notices which he received would fill a large-sized volume. It is with great pleasure that the manager presents him again to the public.

"Mr. Seaton gave a very satisfactory rendering of the Toreador song (No. 2) and as an encore gave 'The Heart Bow'd Down' in a most masterful manner."—Buffalo Courier.

"The singing of Mr. Seaton was grand, probably the finest ever listened to by a Franklin audience."—Daily Leader, Franklin, Pa.

"Mr. Arthur Seaton, as the herald to the 'Toreador,' calls for special commendation. His voice is admirable musical declamation in the preliminaries of the combat scene."—Pleasure, New Orleans.

Mr. Seaton will appear with the International Grand Operatic Co., Jan. 1st.

FIRST OF THE SERIES.

The Frankfort German Club (successors to the Assembly Ball Club) gave the first of a series of germans at the Capital Hotel Ball Room on Tuesday night last. There was a splendid crowd of the prettiest girls (including a number from elsewhere) that Kentucky can boast of present to grace the occasion. As for the boys, it is not necessary to say anything about them. The dance was kept up until 1 o'clock a. m.

It is the intention of the Club to give one of these delightful dances every two weeks during the season, or alternate Tuesdays.

They promise to be first class in every way.

MATRIMONIAL.

WILSON-RODMAN—At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Rodman on Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, Mr. H. Clay Wilson and Miss Little Garrard Rodman were married by Rev. George Darsie.

Owing to the death of Col. Tom Rodman, the grandfather of the bride, the wedding was private, only the immediate family being present.

DALTON-GUNTER—At the residence of the officiating minister on Monday, Dec. 24, Mr. Pearl Dalton to Miss Nannie Gunter, both of this county, were married by Rev. Geo. Darsie.

JOHNSON-FACKER—Married at the Sacra House in Frankfort, Thursday, December 27, 1900, at 2 p.m., by the Rev. George Darsie, Mr. Leroy Johnson and Miss Sallie Facker, both of Bagdad, Shelby county, Ky.

MOORE-SANFORD—Married at the Choateville Christian Church, Thursday, December 27, 1900, at 7 p.m., by the Rev. George Darsie, Mr. John Moore, son of Judge Dan Moore, of Benson, and Miss Katie Sanford, of near Choateville.

MASONIC ELECTION.

Hiram Lodge, No. 4 A. Y. M. elected the following officers on Thursday evening to serve for the ensuing year:

D. W. Lindsey, Jr., Master. Chas. N. Ward, Senior Warden. H. H. Roberts, Junior Warden. V. A. Kaltenbrun, Treasurer. Ben T. Farmer, Secretary. Jas. F. Smith, Steward Tyler.

"Good Night."

How few women know what it is to have a good night; a night of sound, restful sleep, and a sweet dream in a cheery room; but when the chamber door closes behind them, the smiling mask drops off, and shows the lies of suffering.

Other women have had the bad nights of "Pellagra," "Dysentery," Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. So may you. Ninety-eight times in every hundred it perfectly cures diseases of the delicate womanly organs. It builds up the nervous system, puts flesh on the body and color on the cheek.

"Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, Rockford, Illinois, "is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring health without subjecting them to any physical or mental suffering."

"I was all run down in health—could not work but a short while without resting. Was so weak at times that I could not even walk. I had a very poor appetite. I decided to write to Dr. King about my condition, and received a favorable reply, and commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I became ill."

"I have Dr. King's medicine, the best in the world for sick and nervous women."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are specially adapted to the use of delicate women. Easy to take, gentle in action.

AN OPEN STATEMENT.

To the public of Frankfort and others whom it may concern: I desire giving a word of explanation, or warning if it may be so construed, that the Capital Theatre Orchestra was newly organized last June after several years of laboring under disadvantages, and placed upon such a footing that their present status and capability is unimpeachable by even the most prejudiced.

The organization, during the former existence, was known as the Capital City Orchestra, the Frankfort Orchestra and a number of other orchestras too numerous to mention. Since its reorganization and strengthening there were some I feel safe in saying to themselves, that it would not last, and others who, by obscure methods, sought to establish a useless competition and even the destruction of it, failed upon the new orchestra.

The matter seemed unworthy of any attention, until, within a short time past, several misrepresentations were attempted, which cast discredit on the agency and discredit upon us. Accordingly, for the benefit of our friends and patrons, and out of the city, I desire to state that The Capital Theatre Orchestra is the only musical organization remaining the only professional musical element, in that line of work, in the city. Any announcement, such as the Frankfort Orchestra, being engaged for any occasion, may be regarded as a misleading statement.

I also desire to say that, although it is only six months from my first entrance to the city, it has been, and is, a great pleasure and gratification to feel the general approval of the new regime in musical affairs; and in view of the utmost loyalty and co-operative spirit of the Capital Theatre Orchestra's members, and in view of the fact that their work is fairly compared with that of any organization of its size in the south, I can only say that it will be the constant endeavor to cater to the taste of the public as well as to continually strengthen the musical organization, not only our Frankfort people, but of the surrounding territory which may be included in our field of operations.

(Signed) P. A. ATHERTON, Director and Manager Capital Theatre Orchestra.

N. B.—All mail or business communications address as above.

"About five years ago I was troubled with catarrh of the lower bowel," says C. T. Chisholm, 484 Dearborn Avenue, Chicago, and although a recognized medical authority, he prescribed for me. I found their remedies failed to in any way relieve me, and the trouble almost became chronic. After suffering several months, I decided to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I beg to assure you that I was most agreeably surprised to find after taking two doses of the remedy that I was completely relieved of the disease that had come me so much trouble and annoyance. I am thankful to say that I have not suffered from it since." For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

PAN-AMERICAN THE BEST.

J. Woodward Denny, a prominent mining man of California, passed through Portland, Oregon, recently on his return from a trip to the east and to a reporter of the Oregonian he said: "While in Buffalo I visited the Pan-American Exposition grounds and its magnitude was a great surprise to me. I have seen all the expositions of note in the United States since the Centennial but Buffalo, I must confess, will surpass them all from an architectural standpoint. The artistic landscape and gardening, Electric Tower and all the various attractions are unique. And from my opinion that the Pacific Coast will be missing a great opportunity if it does not put forth every effort to advertise its advantages.

A GOOD OBJECT.

Jas. S. Hathaway, President of the Colored State Normal School was here Saturday. He was formally Principal of the colored school in Cincinnati and one of the strongest and most influential members of his race in the South under his excellent management the school is prospering as never before. He takes the proper view of the subject, and thinks the social and industrial salvation of the race depends on the dignifying of labor in their own minds instead of the educated negroes aspiring to be teachers, preachers, and political leaders, only despising manual labor of all kinds.

Next June at the Frankfort school, will be held "An exposition of Negro Industry," and every negro, Kentucky, man or woman, invited to exhibit anything he or she can make and send it to Frankfort to be placed on exhibition. The exhibit embraces a large range of articles including shoes, harness, leather goods, wagons, bugles, wagons, rings, ties, hats, ladies underwear, knitted articles, crocheted articles, millinery work, cabinet articles or sets, samples of plastering, of house painting, of carpentry, of masonry, of iron workmanship, or workmanship in metal—in short, any or all articles that industry can execute. Appropriate prizes will be given in each class.—Sentinel Democrat.

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, pain in the head, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric medicine gives me strength when I am all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a meal every day." Only 50 cents at J. W. Gayle's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

CALLED MEETING.

There will be a called meeting of the Joseph H. Lewis chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy Monday morning, December 31st, in the Capital Hotel ball room at 10 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing that it has already cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. W. Gayle, druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50¢ and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

It was stated a day or so since that the Frankfort Orchestra would furnish the music for the Elite Club dance on New Year's eve. This is incorrect, as the Capital Theatre Orchestra is engaged elsewhere and is the only representative orchestra in the city. Their services were sought, but at too late date to secure them; consequently other arrangements had to be made.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 29, 1900.

ELKS FIRST ANNIVERSARY BANQUET.

Frankfort Lodge, No. 520, B. P. O. Elks, gave their first anniversary banquet at the Capital Hotel on Friday night. Covers were laid for 200 guests but only about 150 were present.

At 9:30 o'clock the Elks and their invited guests assembled in the parlor of the hotel, and under the supervision of Secretary Geo. L. Barnes, formed in procession and marched to the dining room, where an elegant banquet was set out.

The menu embraced all the delicacies of the season, both solid and liquid. At a signal from Judge L. S. Anderson Master of Ceremonies and Toast Master, all fell to and did ample justice to the toothsome viands prepared by Mine Host Weitzel.

About 11:30 o'clock, after the wants of the inner man had been supplied, Judge Anderson made a short and humorous talk introducing Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald, of Louisville (but formerly of this city), who made a beautiful and eloquent speech extolling the objects, aims and achievements of the Elks. His remarks were chaste and clear cut, and showed that our quondam friend has developed into an orator of no mean estate since he left us.

Judge Anderson next introduced Hon. Wm Preston Kimball, County Attorney of Fayette county, who made one of the neatest, wittiest and most eloquent addresses it has been our good fortune to hear. It was heartily applauded and greatly enjoyed.

Dr. C. O. Owens, Superintendent of the Institute for Feeble-minded Children, Col. Jas. Andrew Scott and Mr. John Nichols, of Kansas, being called out by Judge Anderson, made short, impromptu talks.

Delightful music was rendered by the Capital Theatre Orchestra of Prof. F. P. Atherton, during the evening, which, coupled with the songs of the Elks singing by the jolly boys present, made the evening pass swiftly away, and at 1 a. m., after a few words of thanks from Judge Anderson, the crowd dispersed.

An idea has gone abroad that the banquets given by the Elks are simple carousals, but we are glad to say that there was not the slightest thing done or said that would offend the nice sensibilities of the most fastidious. The Lodge has grown from the small number of 29, when organized a year ago, to the gratifying strength of close to 100 members. Its charities have been large and its membership largely embrace our most popular young men.

We desire to congratulate them upon the success of the banquet and to return thanks for courtesies shown us.

DEATH'S SHADOW.

On Thursday night Dr. R. A. Wise, Congressman from the Norfolk, Va., District, died at his home in Williamsburg. The same night Mrs. Wm. P. Frye, wife of President pro tem. Frye, of the Senate, died suddenly.

These deaths cast a gloom over the holiday adjournment.

PROMPT PAYMENT.

Mr. Ernest R. Jones, as agent for the Mutual Benefit Life Association, of Newark, N. J., paid to the estate of Mr. Stephen B. Newton, of Switzer, $1,000, on Dec. 17, the full amount of the policy held on the life of Mr. Newton. This was quick work. Mr. Newton died about Thanksgiving Day, the proofs were sent in ten days after and the sequel follows as above.

TO RAISE SHORT HORNS.

SPLENDID PERFORMANCE.

The production of the four act drama of "Sherlock Holmes," at the Capital Theatre, on Wednesday night, was one of the finest performances staged in this city for years.

The opening of each act was so arranged that the stage was completely dark, and after the curtains were raised the lightning was so artistically done that it produced a wonderful effect, and made the audience on he qui vive for the scene.

The acting of Mr. Cuyler Hastings, in the leading part of "Sherlock Holmes" was first class in every particular. It was realistic throughout, and showed that Mr. Hastings was both a student and an actor in the front rank of his profession.

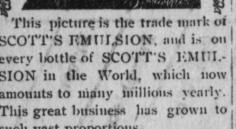

The support was all that could have been desired by the most fastidious.

Messrs. J. B. & A. D. Blanton, the lessors and managers of the theatres, are to be congratulated upon the success of this occasion, and they may be assured that they will continue to bring first-class attractions, such as this, to their house, that Frankfort will return to its old position as one of the best show cities of its size in the country.

Our citizens will always patronize a good show but they shun a poor or second rate one.

There was a large, cultivated and representative crowd present Wednesday night.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes. If possible; if not, consider for you, the fact that either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all drugists in the world. For sale by S. B. Holmes.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the First Baptist Church, held Wednesday night, Dec. 26, a committee was appointed who reported the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from the scene of his great usefulness our senior Deacon, Brother Thomas Rodman; and, whereas, we feel that, as a church, we should put upon record a slight testimonial of the love and affection in which we held him, and therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of our beloved brother this church has sustained an irreparable loss. For thirty-five years he has been one of the strong pillars of Zion, upon whom we leaned always, awaiting that he would improve up to the highest standard of Christian integrity, uprightness of life and unwavering fidelity to the cause of the Master and the church.

Resolved, That in the eighteen years, during which he served as a Deacon, he was always and on every occasion the friend and counsellor of the pastor and his brethren, bearing the burden with cheerful face, ever urging us to higher and better things.

Resolved, That, as a son, husband, father, brother and friend, he was a model of tender and loving care—watchful, earnest and true.

Resolved, That we tender to his bereft loved ones the tenderest sympathy of our hearts, and, mingling our tears over his new made grave, we can only look to Him for comfort, as the answer to the question "why was he taken when we needed him most?"

Resolved, That as his hand and his heart were ever in the cry of the poor and the distressed, his widow and the orphan, he illustrated the Book by giving to the poor, lending to the Lord, and being content with the security.

Resolved, That, as a church we will strive to follow his example, love each other more, serve the Master better that we may strike hands with him again in the better land.

W. S. DEHONEY,
T. E. KENNEY,
J. B. LEWIS,
Committee.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Directors of the Farmers Bank, held on Saturday morning last:

Whereas, It has pleased an All Wise Providence to remove from us our friend and co-Director Col. Thomas Rodman; and

Whereas, For many years he has been one of the most prominent bankers in the State, an upright and useful citizen, a kind and indulgent father, a devoted member of his church and a bright and shining example of what honesty, energy and pluck will accomplish; therefore, it is

Resolved, By the Board of Directors of the Farmers Bank, that we most heartily concur and approve the above resolution of our friend and worth, and extend to him and friends and community at large our sympathy in his loss, and hope and believe that the example of his life will be an incentive to many for upright and honorable careers.

Resolved, further, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the bank and a copy of same be forwarded to the family of Frankfort, Dec. 22, 1900.

Action of the Board of Directors of the Farmers Bank of Kentucky on the death of Mr. Thos. Rodman. Board met. Present—W. S. Dehoney, Vice President; John C. Noel, R. D. Armstrong, James Church, Jas. M. Saffell, J. W. Rodman.

The death of Thos. Rodman, the President of this bank, having been reported to the board, upon motion R. D. Armstrong, John C. Noel and J. M. Saffell are appointed committee for the purpose of preparing and submitting to this board for approval a report and resolution pertaining to the death and loss of our president.

In conformity with the order of this board your committee makes the following report:

Upon examination of the records of this board we find that Thomas Rodman was elected a member of the Directory of this bank on the 9th day of May, 1876, over twenty-four years ago. He was elected President of this bank on the 6th day of May, 1878 by a Directory then composed of A. Duval, James G. Dudley, J. Stoddard Johnson, D. Howard Smith, Scott Brown and G. W. Robb; Grant Green was Cashier and Ed Theobald Assistant Cashier; all of whom, except J. Stoddard Johnson, have gone to "that undiscovered country from whose bound no traveler returns." J. Stoddard Johnson now resides in Louisville, Kentucky, doubtless awaiting his time to meet his old friends.

The passing away of these men forces us to again realize the certainty of death and the rapidity of the passage of time. We take pleasure in reporting that the records of this bank present lasting testimony of the honest and faithful services of these lamented citizens of our county, and bear us out in the statement that there has been paid to the stockholders of this bank since the late President was made a director nearly one and a half million dollars in dividends. We also take pleasure in stating that during our official association with Mr. Rodman upon the Directory of this bank he has always carefully looked after and faithfully guarded the interest of the bank and has endeared himself personally to each and every member of the Directory by his kindness and his affection for us; and by his unfailing and anxious desire to always maintain a feeling of brotherly love and friendship among the members of the board. He felt with keenness and painful anxiety all of the successes and reverses of the bank in its protracted litigation with the State and its municipalities; and when the final stroke came to the bank in the repeal of its charter, it seemed to be the tolling of his death knell; with the death of the old bank on May 1, 1900 began his rapid decline, and as the old bank, he loved so well and was so proud of, was rapidly winding out its existence, he seemed to be unable to survive it, and peacefully passed away; he is now at rest far removed from all the troubles incident to the cares of this life. He was a faithful and consistent and useful member of the Baptist Church nearly all of his protracted life. We ask passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, First, that we recognize in our late President a Christian gentleman, a faithful, efficient and honest official, who devoted the best part of his long and useful life to the service of this bank; and we feel confident that his services will be fully appreciated by the stockholders of the bank, and as time rolls by, we will all kindly remember him as an honest and faithful President and one among the foremost and best of our citizens.

Second, We mourn and regret his loss, we will miss him at our daily board meetings and in our social intercourse; but we console ourselves with the reflection that he is now peacefully at rest; that he has entered upon the enjoyment of the rewards of a useful and well spent Christian life, and that he is now in that haven of rest that we should all strive to attain.

R. D. ARMSTRONG,
JOHN C. NOEL,
J. M. SAFFELL.

Upon motion of James Church the above report and the resolutions accompanying the same by a unanimous vote of the board are hereby adopted and the same are ordered to be spread upon the minutes of this board and a copy thereof is ordered to be sent to the bereaved family of our late President and a copy furnished the local press for publication.

A cold, cough or la grippe can be "nipped in the bud" with a dose or two of Foley's Honey and Tar. Beware on substitutes. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

APPOINTED.

Mr. Will W. Masterson, of Carrollton, has been appointed disbursing agent for the Government building at that place. Mr. Masterson was Consul to Madeira under President Cleveland, and now editor of the Carrollton Republican. He is a cousin of Miss Margaret A. Lewis, of this city, and is a brilliant young man.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a remedy for laryngitis. It is a valuable remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

ANOTHER CONFESSION.

The Louisville papers of Saturday night contained a statement by Robt. Noakes, one of Campbell's star witnesses in the Powers case, admitting that his statements in that trial were false and stating that he was kept under the influence of whisky and threats until he was forced to make the false statements.

Another chapter in the State's infamy.

Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and other throat and lung troubles. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

MORE GOOD WORK.

Notwithstanding its superb work on its issue of Dec. 16, the Lexington Herald made another fine display of good work in its issue of Dec. 23. It had 28 pages of matter filled with advertisements, illustrations and finely written articles. Energy, brains and pluck have accomplished big things.

Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." There is nothing so good. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

HIS NATURAL INCLINATION.

"And you want to take my only child from me in my old age?" said the old man, tearfully.

"Well," replied the young man, slowly, "I don't think I'd want to take her in her old age."—Christmas Smart Set.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Seaman, of North Smithfield, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every kind of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. South & Longmoor, W. STUBBLE CREEK.

Whether is fine for visiting.

Mrs. John Graves is still very low with typhoid fever.

Miss Susie Pulliam and her brother, Mr. Robert Pulliam, of Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting relatives in this community.

Mr. Harrison Sudduth is very ill. Being an old man, his recovery is very doubtful.

Mr. Lee is seen very often going in the direction of Mr. George Hulett and Bill Sudduth, drawing his attention? Perhaps it is his pretty daughter, Miss Little. She is a charming girl. Lee, I can not blame you for going to see her, but you had better keep your eyes open for Mr. Cup and Sander might beat your time.

Miss Hester Pulliam's birthday party was a success last Friday night. Quite a large crowd was present. She received many nice presents.

Mr. Curt Moore paid his respects to Miss Hester Phillips last Tuesday night. I have often heard old coals are easy kindling, and I guess it must be true with them any way.

Miss Esther Moore, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Mitchell, of Bridgeport, has returned home.

Mr. Earl Moore was the guest of Miss Bossie Moore Sunday last. Wonder what has become of Arch.

Mr. Warren Pulliam is having a new home erected.

Primary election is over and every thing appears to be calm except Jim Moore's mill, which has begun whistling again, and, since he was defeated, he seems to be calm also.

Wonder what has become of the Lily of the valley. I guess the winter has been too cold for her.

The Lily is a very delicate flower.

I hope when spring comes she will be all right again and will write another letter.

The Goose Creek correspondent has ceased to write. I guess he must have run her off, but I hope she will return soon with another letter to the dear old Bountiful.

The primary election is over and times are very good, hereabouts. Votes are very high and consequently we had plenty of whisky to drink and money to buy Christmas things. Oh! there is no lack of money, which makes Bald Knob the rich land.

Wech Sudduth's attorney, Mr. Harrison Chisham, has recovered from a gripe and is able to be out again. Look out, George Hulett and Bill Sudduth, we are going to prove where that hog's head went to.

SANTA CLAUS.

FORKS ELKHORN.

Christmas passed off very quietly. Miss Mayme Gallahue was induced the first of the week.

Mr. George Goddard, of Lexington, was in our village this week.

Mrs. Dru Darnell and children of Georgetown, are the guests of Mrs. M. L. Lucas.

Mr. D. Morris Brock has returned to Mississippi, after a short stay with his mother and father.

Miss Mattie Lucas, of Monterey, Owen county, spent Christmas with Mr. M. L. Lucas and family.

Mr. Russell Hughes, who has been in Louisville under treatment, has returned home.

Miss Mary Lark Nichols and brother, T. A., of Lexington, were the guests of Miss Carrie Brock and brother, Morris, this week.

THE LOUISVILLE LEAF TOBACCO BUSINESS.

Of all the interests centering in Louisville, there is none of greater magnitude or importance than the tobacco interest. It is an undisputed fact that Louisville is the largest leaf tobacco market in the world, and moreover, commands almost all parts of the North American continent as well as from European countries. The great prominence of this city as a leaf tobacco market is largely due to the energy and skill of its manufacturers. They are constantly advertising its advantages and facilities, and have attracted the attention of manufacturers to the Louisville

[New Orleans Times-Democrat.]
OLD TIME LADY DIES.

The papers have announced briefly that Thursday last Miss Kate Adair Monroe departed this life at Pass Christian, Miss., aged eighty-three years, but something more is due to the memory of a remarkable woman. Miss Monroe was a native of Kentucky and came south, with her father and mother and sisters, after the cause was lost to which they had devoted all that was dear to them, where, shortly after, terminated the lives of her venerable parents. Miss Monroe and her sister, Miss Polly Monroe, lived at Pass Christian for over a third of a century. During this long period their lives were one unending devotion to works of piety and charity. Aided by a few friends they built the little church by the sea, at the Pass, and, later on, a modest branch at a village in the woods three miles distant known as the Pineville Church; and in endless acts of kindness to the people of the towns and suburbs, this lady, though always invalid in health, spent the latter part of a long life. Dr. Palmer and Dr. Maldard officiated at the funeral service. Miss Monroe was a daughter of Thomas Bell Monroe, for over thirty years United States district judge in Kentucky, and during the war a member of the Confederate Congress, her grandfather, John Adair, was Governor of Kentucky and United States Senator and a General in command of a division in the battle of New Orleans. Her family had other claims on Louisiana. James Monroe, afterwards President, was a cousin of her father, and was the special minister (alleged by Mr. Livingston, the resident minister) who, by treaty, acquired the whole territory of Louisiana. Her South Carolina relatives were Huguenots (through the Benoists). Her surviving sisters are Miss Polly Monroe and Mrs. Henry J. Levy, and among her nephews are Frank A. Monroe, Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana and Robert Grier Monroe, a prominent lawyer in New York, a grandson of Robert Grier, for many years a justice of the United States Supreme Court. She leaves many nieces, among whom are Mrs. George A. Vincent and Mrs. Alfred Lovell Hall, of New Orleans. After all, however, the best record of the life of this venerable lady consisted in her life-long devotion to the highest standard of duty. All present at the funeral felt the full force of the words of Dr. Palmer, in his beautiful address, when he said, at its close, "She has led the life of a saint on earth."

Cold and cough cures are numerous but the one that leads all others in merit is Foley's Honey and Tar, which is in great demand these days. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

CHRISTMAS FUN.

Some young fellows bent on mirth and fun, went to one or two saloons, on Monday night, and, preparing to the back rooms, engaged in mock quarrels, ending up with pulling their guns (which had been loaded with blanks for the purpose) commenced blazing away at each other.

The crowd present, in each instance, imagining a deadly scrap to be on, at once took to flight, overturning chairs, tables, &c., and smashing things generally in their mad desire to get out of range.

It is said several of the runners could have showed Ten Broeck a pace.

That was a novel way to have fun.

IT SAVED HIS LEG.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered intensely for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in ten days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Burns, Boils, Ulcers, or Piles, it is the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25¢ Sold by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

A BEAUTIFUL PRESENT.

The Roundabout and binder forces made the proprietor of the Roundabout happy Christmas morning by presenting him with a handsome dressing gown. It is a beautiful dark blue, warm and comfortable and will always be prized by the recipient as an evidence of their friendship. To one and all he desires to return his heartfelt thanks.

USEFUL GIFT.

For some time there has been great need of another fire alarm box on Second street. Knowing the embarrassed condition of the city finances Mr. Stanley M. Stagg purchased and had placed at the corner of Second and Main streets one of the latest improved alarm boxes. It will be known as No. 123. It was put in position by Chief E. Hickory Taylor the first of the week and was connected with the system on Wednesday.

This will save persons in that vicinity, when turning in an alarm, from going several squares to do so.

Mr. Stagg deserves the thanks of the city for his liberality and public spirit.

A FRIGHTFUL BLUNDER

Will often cause a horrible burn, scald, or ulcer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. It will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures old sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, felonies, corns, all skin eruptions. Best cure on earth. Only 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

WILL ATTEND THE CONCLAVE.

Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, Knights Templar, will attend the Grand Conclave of the Grand Encampment of the United States in Louisville next August in a body. It is now proposed to charter a boat upon which to make the trip down to Louisville, and, upon arrival there, it will be tied up to the wharf and occupied during their stay in the city, instead of securing quarters on shore. A committee has been appointed to secure the boat and the Commandery will soon commence drilling so as to make a good showing in the grand parade.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mrs. Susie Graves (nee Reynolds,) of Louisville, spent the holidays at home.

Stone Bros. have moved their telephone from Jameson Bros. store to B. S. Calvert's. We have now two lines direct to Frankfort.

Mrs. Helen McClure and daughter, Misses Julia and Mattie, and son, Ed. B. of Frankfort, and Mr. Jas. A. Hodges and wife, of Louisville attended the funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Black, wife of Dr. E. H. Black.

A deer hunting trip several times seen on Elkhorn, on Tuesday last week a number of young men started out to kill it. Several parties shot at it and missed. Squire Triplett, who joined the party and saw the deer some 100 yards away. He shot it at and brought it down. It was a fine fat doe.

Mrs. Julia A. Black, wife of the venerable Dr. E. H. Black, was taken with la grippe, on Monday week ago. It turned on her heart, and she passed away on Saturday, at 10 o'clock. The services were preached at the Baptist Church on Monday, at 10 o'clock, by her pastor, Rev. T. Warn Beagle. There were a large number of the friends of this good woman in attendance. She will be sadly missed. (For obituary see editorial columns.—Ed. Roundabout.)

BURGLARY.

The grocery of Mr. F. H. Morris, on Second street, in the Herndon block, was entered on Monday night by burglars and a lot of flour, groceries, knives and forks, &c., stolen. Owing to the lack of police supervision on the South Side, quite a number of burglaries have occurred in that part of the city lately.

In addition to a grand concert of seven numbers and the first and fourth acts of Il Trovatore, Madame Lorraine, the distinguished impersonator, who has performed before Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and has appeared before nearly every court in Europe. She has been engaged as a distinct and separate attraction, and will lend appreciative variety to the performance. This will be one of the leading attractions at the Capital Theatre this season and should be witnessed by a large audience.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

The return of the popular International Grand Operatic Company to the Capital Theatre on January 1st will be welcomed with pleasure by all our theatre going people. The largest house of last season was present when they made their first appearance here last January, and every one was delighted with the performance given. The management has since greatly strengthened the company and now it is considered one of the finest musical organizations on the road. They never come to a city of this size without a large guarantee, as it is an expensive troupe, besides being in demand in the music halls throughout the larger cities. Particular attention is called to the cast including Madame Cleopatra Vicini, the celebrated soprano, whose success in this country has been phenomenal. She has sung from three to sixty nights in all the largest cities, and the press has been lavish in praising her grand singing and dramatic action.

$1,000 WORTH OF GOOD.

A. H. Thurness, of Wills Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been troubled with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones, with excruciating pain. Other medicines I have tried after taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust flowing again, and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good." Take no substitute. PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long of New Staltsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy. Two live, young, foolish boys had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try King of New Orleans. One brother, wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the great value of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50¢ and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's drug store.

Attention!

To prepare your sons for a busy life in this busy world, send them to Ellendale Commercial College, near Cardville, Ky. The college is situated in a healthy and refined neighborhood in Daviess county, remote from the distractions and temptations of city or town. Only experienced instructors are employed. Without exception our graduates are holding good positions.

Board, tuition, furnished room, etc. only $50 for 20 weeks. For catalogue and particulars, address
